

SQ4R and Kurzweil 3000

- Scan or Survey
- Quickly glance over the section in the textbook and read the headings
 - Look at all diagrams and pictures
 - Read the Headings

- Question
- Write questions about what you think that you will reading from the headings and subheadings
 - Use the Sticky Note or the Footnote feature to type questions in Kurzweil 3000

- Read
- Set the Read by feature back to Sentence or Paragraph
 - Read the material using Kurzweil 3000
 - Look for answers as you read

- Record
- Write or highlight answers to the questions that you created. Use 2 colours and highlight:
 - one colour for main ideas from the question that you created
 - second colour for definitions and supporting information.

- Recite
- Check your answers
 - Say them aloud
 - Leave voice notes in Kurzweil 3000 and say your answers

- Review
- Look over your questions and answers
 - Extract your notes and highlighting and read them with Kurzweil 3000
 - Review by:
 - Creating a practice test (extract your notes)
 - Practicing your answers by writing or typing them or by saying aloud
 - Creating a review sheet from your extracted highlights
 - Creating flash cards using PowerPoint and your highlighted text

