College Transition Program

For students with learning disabilities and AD/HD

What are we offering?

1. SPRING SESSION

Orientation for students with learning disabilities and AD/HD (on campus)

Control your future and get a head start on the new and exciting challenges that await you at college by taking advantage of the many supports available to you at Durham.

This program will help you:

- Get a head start in understanding post-secondary education;
- Become familiar with the disability centre and staff;
- Explore the differences in disability support between high school and college;
- Learn about the importance of psycho-educational assessments and begin the process of obtaining your documentation; and
- Gain a better understanding of your disability and start to develop self-advocacy skills.

2. SUMMER SESSION

Transition planning for post-secondary students

This program will help you:

- Get prepared for college;
- Understand how supports are different at college;
- Learn your rights and responsibilities;
- Gain better organization and time management skills;
- Develop better study skills and learning strategies to prepare you for increased academic demands;
- Practise self-advocacy;
- Use assistive technology;
- Develop effective reading and writing strategies;
- Create a personal website about your disability using Dreamweaver and Photoshop;
- Discover your way around campus;
- Build friendships and develop your support network; and
- Receive prizes and a free lunch.

When can you attend?

April 30 or May 1, 2009
