

Free Orientation Programs

The college experience can be very challenging, but also very rewarding. Cambrian College's free orientation programs provide an opportunity for students with disabilities to become familiar with the services available through The Glenn Crombie Centre at Cambrian College and the staff who work there. These programs also enable students to familiarize themselves with assistive technology and learning strategies that will help them to become successful college students.

FOR STUDENTS WITH ANY TYPE OF DISABILITY:

The Glenn Crombie Centre Orientation

This orientation is designed to introduce students with disabilities to the services and staff available to support them with their studies while at Cambrian College. These orientation workshops include four days of hands-on sessions and continues with various learning opportunities in the fall. The program runs August 31 to September 3, 2009.

GCC Mature Student Orientation

This six-day orientation session consists of workshops designed to help mature students with disabilities to discover college services that can support them and help them manage their studies (homework and study time, taking notes, preparing for tests, doing assignments). Hands-on training with computers and assistive technology is an important part of this orientation. The program runs on August 27 to September 3, 2009.

FOR STUDENTS WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES

Summer Institute

The Summer Institute is an orientation program that provides students with learning disabilities with an in-depth, hands-on exploration of assistive technology and its various applications. Group sessions help students to discover their learning strengths and provide them with information and tips on how to manage their learning challenges successfully in a college environment. This program runs from August 17 to September 3, 2009
