Mature Student Orientation

- August 27 to September 3, 2009

Mature Student Application Form

This five-day orientation session consists of on-campus workshops designed to support mature students with disabilities to discover college services that can help to support them with their studies (homework and study time, taking notes, preparing for tests, doing assignments), and have hands-on training with computers and assistive technology.

Get a good start to college, make friends, and learn about the services available to support you.
